When considering a new location for your investment, consider Investing in Slovenia.

The reasons to do business in Slovenia are numerous and quite obvious: Slovenia's strategic position, highly skilled workforce, R&D capabilities and high level of stability. First and foremost, Slovenia's strategically located in the heart of Europe, giving investors ample choices to expand their business beyond Slovenia's borders. This, coupled with the country's modern infrastructure, simplifies access to major European destinations and ensures efficient transport connections for businesses.

Another reason to invest in Slovenia is that there is the reputable workforce, highly skilled, multilingual and loyal that, together with country's extensive R&D capabilities, ensures that Slovenia is well prepared to meet the current and future market demands.

Slovenia's political stability removes the unpredictability factor, while following the OECD principles regarding the protection of foreign property means that investors can further rest assured their interests in the country are protected. According to OECD, Slovenia is one of the least restrictive countries (OECD, FDI Regulatory Restrictiveness Index Database 2022).

Finally, wrapping up the list of reasons to invest in Slovenia: limitations in terms of investments are few and foreign investors can invest in most business undertakings. There are also no limitations on repatriation of profit and capital, providing all due taxes to the Slovenian Tax Administration have been settled.

But why don't you see this for yourself and visit Slovenia on an investment research expedition? Witness first-hand the quality of Slovenia's infrastructure, its people and its way of living - Slovenia is regularly ranked amongst top locations for its quality of life.
